

MERIDIAN

Presenza Wiring Installation

Power is brought up through the hole in the lower base plate, through the vertical wire track on the rear panel, then through the strain relief fitting (if needed). The power then terminates into the ground block, and both fuse blocks.

The unit is wired specifically to operate as long as the colored wires coming into and out of the fuse blocks match (white to white and black to black).